

OPERATION MESS HALL (DAVID'S PARTIOT GRILL) BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BOARD CHAIR - STEVE SCHIFFMAN, President Founder and Executive Director of Life Renewed International, an Air Force veteran, has served as a marketing and media consultant and is an international best-selling author. He is the visionary, one of the founders and a strategic planner for Operation Not Forgotten. His accomplishments include receiving the National League of American Pen Women's State of Georgia Award for Achievement in Letters and winning television's most prestigious award, a local Emmy, as well as three National Religion in Media Awards. Steve has organized and directed creative teams to produce award winning commercials, which have aired on ABC, NBC and CBS network television. As a publisher, he was asked by the Arthur S. DeMoss Foundation to conceptualize and produce the original Power for Living book, which has reached millions through their national media campaign.

Aside from being a marketing and media consultant, Steve has also been a business consultant, and a business owner. Just as he has diversified creative interests, he has had a diversified portfolio of businesses. Additionally, he owned and managed one of the largest cruise-only travel agencies in the United States.

JANET LABAS ORMAN, Co-Founder and Director of Programs of Life Renewed International, is the principal author of the Life Renewed Life Coaching program. She works with Life Renewed to develop programs and curriculum for Life Renewed, including Operation Not Forgotten and Code Blue. Additionally, she does graphic design, website development, grant writing, and trains Program Directors and Life Coaches for Life Renewed programs. Janet has facilitated leadership development conferences and has given educational workshops to many professional groups.
